Rebecca Chavez-Houck sworn in Today as State Representative for House District 24

SALT LAKE CITY - January 16, 2008 - Newly appointed State Representative Rebecca Chavez-Houck (D) of Salt Lake city was sworn in today by Speaker of the House Greg Curtis. Rep. Chavez-Houck will represent constituents of House District 24 in the Avenues and downtown areas of Salt Lake City. The ceremony took place in the Utah House Chamber with family members, friends, and co-workers attending along with other elected officials.

Rep. Chavez-Houck was appointed to fill the District 24 seat last month by Democratic delegates of her district in Salt Lake City. She will fill the remaining 12 months of the term of Ralph Becker, who was elected as Mayor of Salt Lake City in November.
